Mr. Charlie Thornton, of Roundhay, Leeds, has given a donation of £100 0s. 0d. to commemorate his long association with the Methodist Chapel, Old Bank Road, Mirfield.

The residue of the estate of Mrs. M. E. Hebron, amounting to £1,505 6s. 3d. has been received by the Trustees of the Hospital.

Mrs. M. A. Wilson, of Knowle Brow, Harrogate, and formerly of Mirfield, bequeathed £500 0s. 0d. to the funds of the Hospital.

Funds provided by the late Mirfield Revue Committee have paid for the installation of a special light over the operating table.

The Hospital continues its record of good work, the number of cases treated being well above the average; the appreciation of its services to the people of Mirfield and District is reflected in the willing and generous support of the funds of the Hospital, to help in maintaining its efficiency.

The Hospital finances, particularly Income, continues to be splendidly maintained; Income of £1,727 4s. 11d. against £1,520 11s. 9d. last year, and Expenditure of £1,638 17s. 3d. as against £1,733 17s. 6d.

The Committee beg to give their best thanks to the Ladies' Committee and Miss Nancy Barraclough, for the collection of £43 16s. 6d. on the Hospital Flag Day; to the Ladies' Linen League, whose care of the Linen Department is of great service to the work of the Hospital; the Mirfield Workpeople's Hospital Association for the donation of £60 0s. 0d. from the Carnival; the Mirfield Bowling League for promoting a tournament and sale of Alexandra Roses, generously provided by Mr. Sykes Willans, which raised the sum of £47 5s. 0d.; the Committees of the firms of Messrs. James Walker & Sons, Ltd. (Holme Bank and Butt End Mills), Messrs. H. Wheatley & Sons, Ltd., and Messrs. J. H. Walker & Sons (Ravensthorpe), who arranged Whist Drives and Dances and raised £95 1s. 9d.; the Dewsbury and District Butchers' Association, whose special effort to help the Hospital by a Whist Drive and Dance in the Drill Hall, Mirfield, gave a donation of £28 10s. 0d.; the West Riding County Council for the grant of £45 0s. 0d.; the West Riding Constabulary (Mirfield Section), who promoted a successful Whist Drive and Dance; the Mirfield Baptist Military Band; the Workpeople of the factories, whose interest in the welfare of the Hospital has their enthusiastic help. The Committee recommend the scheme for weekly contributions as the best way of providing a regular source of income.

The Egg Collection under the scheme of the Dowager Countess of Harewood for the Voluntary Hospitals, resulted in 2,000 eggs being collected by Miss Margaret Crowther for the Hospital.

The Committee are very grateful to the Hon. Consulting Surgeons and the Hon. Medical Staff for their untiring efforts on behalf of the patients, and to the Matron and Staff, whose devotion to the care and welfare of the patients is most efficiently rendered; to the annual Subscribers, Clubs and Societies, Churches and Chapels, Donors to the funds, Collections in factories, Donors of many gifts, the Hon. Treasurer, the Hon. Auditors and The Press.

The Accounts have been duly audited by Messrs. J. Binns and J. A. Bruce.
